There have been several bad caves in the river road; one at Holly Head between Enola and Sataria and two below Sataria. Travelers should beware of these places and efforts should be made to stop the caving.

We are sorry to state that owing to failing health Mr. Fenton Luckett was compelled to give up his position at Wise Bros., for the summer. He left last Friday for Castalian Springs where we sincerely hope he will speedily recover.

The small rains this week have been very beneficial to the gardens, but it has not rained enough to help those whose cisterns are dry. There are a great many cisterns here that are dry and people are having water hauled from the river and a good heavy rain would help things in this section mightily.

S. S. Hudson, Esq., of Yazoo county, can afford to district-attorney, was a welcome caller at the Clarion-Ledger office. He is a vigorous young man, a good lawyer, a first-class gentleman, the equal of any candidate in the field. He is making a canvass of the district and is much pleased with the outlook.—Clarion-Ledger.

The Spring Sunday School Convention for Beat 3 will be held at Center Ridge school house, on next Sunday, June 14th. All Sunday Schools in Beat 3 are urged to attend in mass or to send large delegations. In the morning the Center Ridge Sunday School will have their regular exercises. Dinner will be served on the ground. In the afternoon the school and visitors will be addressed by Rev. C. E. Cunningham of Yazoo City.

The Euchre Club was elegantly entertained last Thursday night at the social home of Mrs. W. H. Stubblefield, by Misses Lula and Eva. The prizes were won by the following parties: Ladies progressive—Miss Lula Stubblefield; ladies hooby—Miss May Sheelton; gentlemen's progressive—Mr. Thos. Lightcap; gentlemen's hooby—Mr. Claude Swayze. The above was one of the most interesting games the club has ever enjoyed. Refreshments were served and enjoyed.

On last Sunday a reporter of THE SENTINEL had the good fortune of attending the exercises at the Zion Church, the occasion being children's day at the Sunday School of that church. The scholars conducted their parts in a creditable manner. The prayer by the bright little four year old Gladys Elliott, daughter of Dr. J. C. Elliott, was especially interesting. The people of the Zion neighborhood should indeed be proud of such a thriving church and Sunday School, and we congratulate them on their success in building them up. We regret that we cannot give a more extensive notice of the play, but our space will not permit.

The Durel-Poursine Wedding

One of the most beautiful and impressive marriages, that ever occurred in this city was solemnized in St. Mary's Church, at 1 o'clock on Wednesday, June 10th, 1891, the contracting parties being Mr. F. E. Durel, of New Orleans, and Miss Mable Poursine, of this city, Rev. Father J. L. Wise performing the ceremony.

The Church was handsomely decorated for the occasion by loving friends of the bride. The bridal party entered the Church in the following order:

USHERS

M. Y. Stubblefield, J. S. Barbour, Wilson McRaven, Richard Wilson

ATTENDANTS:

Mr. J. Carless, Miss Lilley Tyler, J. McCormick, Miss Mary Posen

S. Poursine, Miss Mary Thomson.

The attendants were followed by the bride and her sister, Miss Louise Poursine who were met as they approached the church by the groom and his best man, Mr. Jno. Honor, who came from sacristy.

The bride was dressed in white crepon, demitrain.

The bridesmaids wore cream mull.

After the ceremony at the Church, the bridal party and invited guests repaired to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Poursine where an elegant collation was spread and a reception had until 4 o'clock.

The happy couple left Wednesday for New Orleans which place they will make their future home.

Mr. Durel for the past two seasons has been in the employ of that large cotton firm, Messrs. James & Eason, whose confidence he enjoys to a marked degree. He stands well in this community, being an affable, courteous and popular gentleman.

The bride is one of Yazoo City's loveliest ladies; as charming in person as she is pure and noble in heart. She is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Poursine, was born and raised here, and numbers her friends by legions.

The SEXTON, extends best wishes to the happy pair.

Hilton Picnic.

One of the most pleasant and largely attended picnics of the season, came off on Saturday last in a beautiful grove near Hilton. The crowd was large, a blending of learned manhood, beautiful women and innocent youth and good humor and fraternity held full sway during the entire day. The school house was utilized by the belle and the beaux for the tripping of the light fantastic toe, while the greater part of the assembly gathered around the hustings to listen to the eloquent orations that were numerous, gifted and enjoyed by the crowd. Mess. W. D. Gibbs, J. G. McGuire, Prof. McCutchen and Mr. Joe Milner were the leading speakers, confining their remarks to the pro and con of the sub-treasury measure. Mess. Gibbs and Milner favoring and McGuire and McCutchen opposing. Mr. J. A. Barksdale and C. H. Perkins, Esq., also addressed the crowd, both in advocacy of their claims to the respective offices to which they aspire. The dinner was a magnificent spread and was enjoyed by all present. The hospitality of the people of the Hilton neighborhood was tested to its full capacity, and was nobly responded to as was evidenced by the enjoyment of all present.

The remains of Mr. J. L. Corbin were brought to Yazoo City on Monday last and buried in Yazoo City Cemetery. Mr. Corbin a few weeks since became ill, and was sent to the asylum in Jackson. He was placed in a room in the third story and on Sunday evening attempted to make his escape by making a rope of his bedclothes and letting it down from the window. His improvised rope broke and he was precipitated to the pavement below. He fell a distance of fifty feet and was of course killed. His death was most sad. It is painful to his many friends and the manner in which it occurred is horrible. Several criticisms were made against the management of the asylum on the Tuesday that they should have confined a raving maniac in a room where he could not force his entrance through and meet with the terrible death that did Corbin.

Corbin had many friends, to whom he was as true as steel. He was an excellent gentleman, and upright and honorable. He leaves behind him a widow and a family. His life was insured for the benefit of his wife and children for $25,000.

Maj. E. Barksdale and Senator J. Z. George are avowed candidates for the Senate and have been and are making a canvass of the State for the office. The people are deeply interested in the result. We think it would be wise to let the Democracy of Yazoo county express its choice between them, the members elected to the Legislature to vote for the one thus declared the choice. This would determine whether the Democracy of the county prefer Barksdale or George, and the former's friends have no fear of the result. Let the issue be squarely presented.

Mr. J. C. Bortley was severely injured by being kicked by his horse at Mr. Roberts' very stable on Tuesday afternoon. Fortunately for him the animal was not shod or the accident might have been a fatal one. We are glad to hear that as we go to press he is much better.

Gent's Furnishing goods can be obtained at HANNEBERG'S at strictly cost price. Stock large and well assorted.

Rev. Mr. Boring of Johnson City, Tenn., closed his meeting on Tuesday last. He has preached some excellent sermons. His congregation have not been large, but have been attentive and interested.

The following is said to be a sure antidote for a snake bite: 10 grains iodine, 30 grains iodine iron and 1 oz. aqua. Apply to bitten part. Extreme cases give from three to ten drops internally.

The Presbyterian Festival at the Thompson yard on Friday night was a most pleasant affair, and everything considered netted a nice sum.

Mr. E. Dressing is in attendance on Alcorn University as one of its trustees.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Harbison are on a visit to relatives.

Hon. W. D. Gibbs will address the people at the following times and places: Monticello, Lawrence Co., June 20; Brookhaven, Lincoln Co., June 22; Washington, Copiah Co., June 23; Crystal Springs, Copiah Co., June 24.

Now is the time for everybody to purchase bargains from HANNEBERG for cash strictly across the counter.

I. Hanneberg About to Enter Business in Vicksburg.

It is stated by good authority that Mr. I. Hanneberg, one of the most prominent and wealthy merchants of Yazoo City, who is now in town, has decided to embark in business here, and is negotiating for one of the largest stores in the city, as well as a handsome residence. This step is the result of Mr. Hanneberg's recognition of the commercial advantages of Vicksburg and the necessity of finding a larger field for the employment of his energy. The store which Mr. Hanneberg is about to have located is centrally situated on Washington street and entirely adapted to the requirements of a large concern in the fancy dry goods, millinery and dress-making line, this being his line of trade and the store which he has hitherto carried on with distinguished success. The new establishment will meet the increasing demands of the city in this respect and attract much new business from the territory adjacent, hereto, including the Upper Yazoo and Tallahatchie rivers.

A man of Mr. Hanneberg's means and liberality would be an acquisition to any city and should be indeed come here he will undoubtedly receive a liberal share of the public patronage. Thoroughly versed in the wants of the trade and buying from first hands in every large quantity, he is able to offer his patrons extraordinary inducements and may be expected to occupy a relatively high position here in Yazoo City.

We are sorry to know that Mr. Hanneberg should even contemplate leaving a five and progressive town like Yazoo City to remove to the Hill City, and trust he will reconsider and remain here, for we should dislike to see him remove his large and elegant dry goods emporium, which is widely known and largely patronized, to say nothing of the removal of himself and estimable family.

DIED.

Editor SENTINEL—

Died, at his home in Yazoo County, on the 5th of June, Willie Ward Buchanan, aged one year, ten months and five days. He was the heart of the parents to whom he will never see their "jewel" any more on earth. He is gone and they must say "Farewell" our Willie, precious jewel, our hearts ache so to give thee up, so young, so beautiful even in death, we bid thee farewell, but we will not lift to reveal to you the bitter and sweet of life. It seems cruel to have our loved one thus taken so suddenly from us by the icy monster death, but God doth all things well. He is gone to dwell with God and Angels forever and while he cannot return to you, Dear Parents, you can go to him. There you will find your Willie among the bright stars which illumine the Throne of God. Our Father prepare the dear Parents for that happy reunion. Father, Mother, and little Willie be comforted in the assurance of your Willie's safe deliverance into glory. Once more, farewell Dear Willie, we hope to meet you beyond the river of death.

Death may take the life of an angel, But can't dissolve our love; Millions of infant souls compose The family above.

When the distinguished Company of those invited to take seats on the platform at the unveiling ceremonies at Jackson on the 3rd inst., were distributing themselves, Capt. J. G. Barbour of Yazoo City climbed up waving all that was left of the flag presented by the Ladies of Memphis in 1861 to Company B. Forests old Regiment. Up to that time there had been but one flag national in character on the platform. It was the flag of the "Loyal Rifles" which bore the date of 1861, and the inscription "The Sunny South."—St. Louis Globe Democrat.
